

TEMPORARY WORKERS HANDBOOK

WELCOME

Welcome to Pin Point Recruitment Limited!

Pin Point Recruitment Limited was started in Newcastle 1999, and has grown to become a leader in delivering workforce solutions to the UK's industrial, driving, warehouse, distribution, training, healthcare sectors.

This handbook is designed to give you all the information you will need to ensure your temporary assignments run smoothly.

This handbook is a general guide and will cover most of your temporary assignments, however, some assignments at certain clients will require additional information. If this is the case this information will be provided to you by Pin Point before your assignment begins or on-site by the client.

Remember we are always here to help so if you have any further questions or queries then please contact your local branch between 8:30 am and 5:30pm Monday – Thursday and 8.30pm and 5pm on Fridays.

Please take time to read this brief guide and thank you for choosing Pin Point Recruitment.

Useful Definitions:

'Client': The person, firm or corporate body requiring the services of the Temporary Worker.

'Assignment': Means the period during which you are working under the supervision, direction and control of the Client.

'Terms of Engagement': The conditions signed and agreed by you in order to be offered work by Pin Point Recruitment.

STARTING AN ASSIGNMENT

Once you have registered with your local Pin Point Recruitment branch it is your responsibility to keep us updated on your availability to work.

It is important you keep in touch and let us know if your personal details or circumstances change.

If we do not hear from you, we may not realise that you are still available and looking for work and we will therefore not be able to find you any suitable assignments.

Please let us know if your circumstances change e.g. not available to work for us, change of address, telephone number, or any changes to your personal details.

It is impossible for us to offer you assignments if we cannot contact you. We need to know if you decide not to use our services any longer.

ELIGIBILITY TO WORK

Communication is vital with regards to your right to work documentation. You must inform Pin Point Recruitment as soon as you receive any information regarding your eligibility to work. If you do not provide adequate up to date information and documents, you will not be able to work.

As a Temporary Worker you are engaged as a worker and not an employee. Pin Point Recruitment has no obligation to find you work, and you have no obligation to accept any work we offer. There will be no employment relationship between you and Pin Point Recruitment when you are not on assignment.

Pin Point Recruitment is required to make deductions from your wages in respect of PAYE pursuant to Sections 44 – 47 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 and Class 1 National Insurance

Contributions and any other deductions such as Pension contributions, staff Loans or overpayments, which we may be required by law to make. This does not however affect your employment status.

Once Pin Point Recruitment has offered you an assignment and you have chosen to accept it, we will issue you with an Assignment Details Report. This Report will contain all the details of that particular assignment including the name of the client at which you are going to work, the assignment start date, location, hours, any relevant health and safety information, and details of pay rates.

DISCRIMINATION

Pin Point Recruitment Ltd is an Equal Opportunities Company. The Company commits itself to promote and develop equal opportunities and will keep under review its policies, procedures and practices to ensure that they accord with the principles of equal opportunities and are consistently applied.

Pin Point Recruitment recognises that discrimination is unacceptable, and it is in its own best interests, as well as the interests of its workers, to utilise the skills of the total workforce and work seekers.

The aim of our Equal Opportunities Policy is to ensure that no temporary worker or work seeker receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of gender, marriage or civil partnership, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, sexual orientation, disability, race, colour, ethnic background, nationality, religion or belief, age or trade union membership.

DURING AN ASSIGNMENT

HOURS AND TIMESHEETS

It is important that you make sure you know what system is in place at each client to record the hours that you work.

You may be required to clock in and out or complete a time sheet. Some time sheets are sent directly to the client or completed in blocks. You will be advised what method applies when you are notified of the assignment. It may also be necessary in some circumstances to complete both a client timesheet and a Pin Point Recruitment timesheet.

If a timesheet is not submitted to the correct place at the correct time, your payment for work may be delayed, whilst we verify your hours of work.

PAY

Each assignment you work on may have a different pay and overtime rate depending on the client and the type of work completed. It is in your interest to know what rate of pay you are being paid and the overtime agreement with each assignment, therefore always ask if in doubt.

Pin Point Recruitment runs a weekly payroll. This means you will be paid weekly, one week in arrears. Your weekly wages are usually paid directly via BACS into your bank account or via cheque, remember that cheques take at least 5 days to clear.

Your payslips will either be emailed to you or securely viewable on our main website.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS AND SICK PAY

We will provide help if you have problems with benefits. There are several schemes, which allow you to work without losing all your benefits. Please contact us if you become ill whilst working at one of our clients, because you may be eligible for sick pay, and we can assist you with making claims.

DAMAGE TO GOODS OR EQUIPMENT

If you cause any damage to goods or equipment at a client's premises, you must firstly report it to your immediate Supervisor and ask for an accident report form, which should then be completed.

You should then report the incident to Pin Point Recruitment by telephone to your named contact. You will not be liable for any damage caused to goods or equipment if you report incidents immediately.

You may be liable for any damage caused by deliberate inappropriate behaviour.

ANNUAL LEAVE

Under the Working Time Regulations, you are entitled to 28 days (including bank holidays) paid leave each year on a pro rata basis if you work continuously during the year. If a client requires you to work a bank holiday, they you will receive a day in lieu.

Your entitlement to paid leave accrues in proportion to the amount of time worked on assignment during the year. As an example, if you have worked for 12 weeks, your entitlement is $28 \div 52 \times 12 = 6.46$ days.

- Holiday pay is calculated based on your average basic remuneration over the 9 weeks immediately preceding the holiday.
- The holiday year starts on January 1st and ends on December 31st the following year.
- All requests for holiday must be in writing to the branch you are registered at. Not for Industrial – normally requested directly with the client
- You must give three as much notice as the days you wish to take, i.e. If you wish to take 5 days holiday, you must give 10 days' notice.
- The minimum amount of holiday you can take at a time is 0.5 days.
- It is your responsibility to take all paid leave that you are entitled to. Under the Working Time Regulations, we are not entitled to pay you instead of you taking your leave entitlement, except on termination of employment. You must be physically away from your place of work to receive your holiday pay. The basic principle of holiday pay is that you still receive remuneration whilst you are on holiday.
- Holiday pay cannot be carried over into the next holiday year.
- Pin Point Recruitment or the Client can reasonably refuse a holiday request and require you to take your holiday at a different time. This might be for example during busy periods at a particular Client where they require you to work.

- Pin Point Recruitment also reserves the right to require you to take any outstanding holiday entitlement during any period of notice whether given by you or Pin Point Recruitment.
- We cannot offer you work whilst you are on paid leave from another agency.

If when you leave Pin Point Recruitment you have taken more leave than you have accrued that year, then you agree to repay the amount equivalent to the amount of days by which you have exceed your entitlement. Pin Point Recruitment will deduct this amount from your final pay. If this amount is in excess of your last pay, then you must pay this money back to us within 7 days of you leaving.

ABSENCES

SICKNESS

If you are absent from work due to sickness you must:

1. Inform Pin Point Recruitment by telephone at least 1 hour before the start of your shift. You should give the reason for your absence and when you are expected to return. If you off for more than one day you need to follow the same procedure every day of your absence.
2. If you are off sick less than 7 days, you should complete a self-certification form which is available from your branch and send it to your Pin Point Recruitment branch on the day of your return.
3. If you are off sick more than 7 days, you will need to get a note from your doctor. This should be sent to Pin Point Recruitment as soon as possible. Doctor's certificates should be provided for the entire time you are absent, and it is your responsibility to keep us informed of your progress and if you know when you are going to return.

SICK PAY

You may be entitled to Statutory Sick Pay (SSP) if you;

- Have notified us of your absence
- Your earnings are high enough
- If you are incapable of working for more than 4 consecutive day and have a doctor's note for periods of sickness over 7 days.

SSP is paid in accordance with current legislation and at a set rate.

You will be entitled to SSP up until your assignment ends, or up to a maximum of 28 weeks from either Pin Point Recruitment or the Job Centre. You will not be entitled to SSP from Pin Point Recruitment for periods where you are not on assignment.

Pin Point Recruitment has the right to have you examined by a doctor of our choosing. We may also request, with your permission a medical report from your doctor.

OTHER ABSENCES

If you need time off for any other reason it is important that you give Pin Point Recruitment as much notice as possible.

You should also notify us, if you are delayed or find that for any reason cannot attend your assignment, at least 1 hour prior to the commencement of your assignment

WORKING TIME

The Working Time Regulations 1998 state that on average you should not be required to work more than 48 hours each week unless you agree to do so in writing.

Temporary or contract work is all about flexibility, and sometimes the client may want you to work for longer hours. For this reason, Pin Point Recruitment may ask you to work for more than 48 hours a week, though of course you are under no obligation to do so.

You should note that the 48-hour week is an average number of hours, and the average is calculated over a 17-week period (longer in some sectors). In other words, even if you have not agreed in writing to work more than 48 hours per week, there may be some weeks when you do work longer than 48 hours. This is permitted provided that the average hours over a 17-week period does not exceed 48 hours.

You may opt out of the 48-hour regulation at any time.

If you are over 18 you are also entitled to:

- 20 minutes rest when working 6+ hours.
- 11 consecutive hours rest in every 24 hours
- 1 days' rest each week or 2 days' rest each fortnight

If you are under 18 you are also entitled to:

- 30 minutes rest when working 6+ hours.
- 12 consecutive hours rest in every 24 hours
- 2 days' rest each week
- 40-hour week maximum

Night Work

- Is defined as is at least 3 hours work between 11pm – 6am
- An eight-hour average limit on a night worker's normal hours of work per day
- An eight-hour actual limit for each day in the case of work undertaken by a night worker involving special hazards or heavy physical or mental strain
- Young Workers under 18 are not permitted to work night work except in certain circumstances.

Please note that some different working time rules apply to drivers. Please see the next section.

DRIVERS WORKING TIME

Different working time rules apply to drivers, due to the nature of the work and the potential consequences of over working.

- Penalties/fines
- Accidents which lead to criminal prosecution.

For more information on the rules and regulations that apply to you ask within your branch.

HEALTH & SAFETY

When you are working on any assignment you will be under the supervision, direction and control of the client. You must make sure that you comply with the rules and procedures at each individual client.

Each client will provide you with a health and safety induction at the beginning of every assignment. Please inform your local branch if you do not receive this health and safety induction.

When working under the supervision direction and control of the client you must:

- Comply with all hazard and warning signs displayed on the premises.
- Ensure you keep your work area clean and tidy.
- Dispose of any waste in the appropriate place.
- Never obstruct any fire escape routes, firefighting equipment or fire doors.
- Comply with all written or verbal instructions given to you by the client to ensure your personal safety and the safety of others.
- Report any safety hazard within your work area or defect in any machinery, plant or equipment to their supervisor.
- Attend, as requested by the client, any training course, meeting etc. designed to further the interest of health and safety
- Refrain from any foolish behaviour.

PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT (PPE)

Pin Point Recruitment will inform you if you are required by the client to wear any PPE, and if so, what is required. Some items will be provided by the client and some items are also available from us. Always make sure you wear and use the PPE as directed by the client.

PPE equipment should be returned to Pin Point Recruitment branch when you have finished your assignment. If you do not return the PPE you may be charged.

EQUIPMENT

You must not operate any item of equipment unless you have been trained and authorised to do so.

You must not remove any guarding from any equipment used or deviate from the authorised usage of any equipment.

You should immediately report any defective equipment, and never attempt to repair it yourself.

ACCIDENT REPORTING

If you are involved in an accident whilst on assignment you must immediately inform the first aider, or first aid appointed person irrespective of the severity of the injury

You should also record the details of your accident in the accident record sheet.

If you require medical treatment after an injury, please keep us updated as to your progress and expected return to work.

Please also report any incident which results in damage to any property.

MANUAL HANDLING

Manual handling can never be entirely risk free, the following guidance is provided to help reduce the risk of both long- and short-term injury. It is your responsibility to assess each situation or ask advice.

Stop and Think

Plan the lift. Where is the load to be placed? Use appropriate handling aids if possible. Do you need help with the load? Remove obstructions such as discarded wrapping material. For a long lift, such as floor to shoulder height, consider resting the load mid-way on a table or bench in order to change grip.

Position your feet

Adopt a stable position with feet apart and one leg slightly forward to maintain balance.

Adopt a good position

When lifting from a low level, bend the knees. But do not kneel or over flex the knees. A slight bend of back, hips and knees is preferable to stooping or squatting, lean forward a little over the load if necessary to get a good grip. Keep the shoulders level and facing in the same direction as the hips

Get a firm grip

Try to keep the arms within the boundary formed by the legs. The best position and type of grip depends on the circumstances and individual preference but it must be secure. A hook grip is less tiring than trying to keep the fingers straight. If you need to vary the grip as the lift proceeds, do it as smoothly as possible

Keep close to the load

Keep the load close to the trunk for as long as possible. Keep the heaviest side of the load next to the trunk. If a close approach to the load is not possible, slide it towards you before trying to lift

Don't Jerk

Lift smoothly, keeping control of the load.

Move the feet

Don't twist the trunk when turning to the side

Keep your head up

When handling, look ahead, not down at the load (once it has been held securely).

Put down, and then adjust

If precise positioning of the load is necessary, put it down first, and then slide into the desired position.

Be aware!

You may be at risk if you:

- a. are physically unsuited to carry out the task.
- b. are wearing unsuitable clothing, footwear or other personal effects.
- c. do not have adequate or appropriate training or knowledge

Mechanical aids

Always consider using mechanical aids as they can improve productivity as well as safety. Even something as simple as a sack truck can make a big improvement.

Frequent lifting and lowering

Weights should be reduced if the operation is repeated more often. As a rough guide, reduce the weights by 30% if the operation is repeated once or twice per minute; by 50% where the operation is repeated five to eight times per minute; and by 80% where the operation is repeated more than 12 times per minute.

Training

Training by the client and on the client's, site should be provided so that safe manual handling and good handling techniques are used for the specific task.

AGENCY WORKER REGULATIONS 2010 (AWR)

The following notes are intended as a basic guide.

Contact your branch if you want any information regarding the AWR, and in particular if you think you have not been treated fairly. Alternatively, visit <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications> and search Agency Worker Regulations 2010–Guidance.

The Agency Worker Regulations 2010 are available at www.legislation.gov.uk.

As soon as you start work at a client you are entitled to the following facilities, if the client provides the facility to permanent staff.

- Access to lockers
- Access to car parking
- Use of shared facilities such as canteens, drinks machines, rest rooms, and toilets access to childcare facilities.
- Access to transport services.
- Access to information about job vacancies at the client.
- After a 12-week qualifying period you will be entitled to either:

(a) Equal pay with no pay between assignments or

(b) Pay between assignments and no equality of pay.

Equal pay means that you are entitled to the same pay, as you would have been, had you been hired directly by the client to do the same job, with the same qualifications and experience.

To complete the 12-week qualifying period you must have worked 12 weeks at the same client, with no more than 6-week gaps between periods of work. If you have a gap of more than 6 weeks at the client after the 12-week qualifying period, you will have to re-qualify.

FAMILY FRIENDLY MATTERS

MATERNITY PAY

You may be entitled to Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP) if:

- You have worked for Pin Point Recruitment for at least 26 weeks up to and including the 15th week before your baby is due.
- Your earnings are high enough.
- You are still pregnant at the 11th week before your expected week of childbirth.
- You have given Pin Point Recruitment at least 28 days' notice of when you intend SMP to start.
- You must provide medical evidence of the date your baby is due; this can be obtained by your doctor on a MAT B1 form.
- Finally, you must have stopped working wholly or partly because of pregnancy, you cannot receive wages and SMP at the same time.

The amount of SMP that you receive will be based on 90% of your average earnings for the first six weeks and is then paid at a statutory set rate or 90% of your earning for the rest for the time (whichever is lower). SMP is paid for up to 39 weeks.

SMP will be paid into your bank account and will be subject to deductions for tax and national insurance. If you do not qualify for SMP you may be entitled to claim Maternity Allowance.

MATERNITY LEAVE

Temporary workers on Terms of Engagement are not entitled to Statutory Maternity Leave. The minimum amount of time off that a temporary worker must take after having a baby is 2 weeks, or 4 weeks for factory work. - Your earnings are high enough.
- You are the biological father of the child or the mother's husband or partner.
- You have or expect to have responsibility for the child's upbringing.

SPP is paid for 1 or 2 weeks at a statutory weekly rate or 90% of your average weekly earnings (whichever is lower).

You are also entitled to paid time off accompany a partner to up to two ante natal appointments if you have 12- weeks qualifying service.

PATERNITY LEAVE

Temporary workers on Terms of Engagement are not entitled to Statutory Paternity Leave.

SHARED PARENTAL PAY

You may be entitled to Shared Parental Pay (SPP) if the mother chooses to end her statutory maternity pay early.

You may be entitled to Shared Parental Pay if:

- You have worked for Pin Point Recruitment for at least 26 weeks up to and including the 15th week before your baby is due.
- Your earnings are high enough.
- You share responsibility for the child.
- Your partner must be eligible for Statutory Maternity Pay.

Shared Parental Pay is paid at 90% of your average weekly earnings or at a set statutory rate depending on which is lower.

SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE

Temporary workers on Terms of Engagement are not entitled to Shared Parental Leave.

ADOPTION PAY

If you are going to adopt a child, you may be entitled to Statutory Adoption Pay.

You will be entitled if:

- You have worked for Pin Point Recruitment for at least 26 weeks prior to being placed with the child.
- Your earnings are high enough.
- You have given notice to Pin Point Recruitment.
- You have provided proof of adoption.

Statutory Adoption Pay is paid at a set rate or 90% of your earnings, whichever is lower.

ADOPTION LEAVE

Temporary workers on Terms of Engagement are not entitled to Adoption Leave.

GENERAL INFORMATION

FINES, PENALTIES AND CHARGES

You will be liable to pay any fines or penalties incurred whilst working on assignment.

This is particularly relevant to drivers and includes road traffic offences, parking and congestion fines.

THE INTERNET, EMAILS AND MOBILE PHONES

The law in the UK regards virtually anything published on the internet as in the public domain, even if it is addressed to friends.

Even emails and text messages are not secure, as they can be forwarded on to other people.

If you publish racist, rude or offensive remarks about Pin Point Recruitment, its employees, temporary employees or temporary workers, or our Clients or people working at the client your assignment may be terminated.

USE OF MOBILE PHONES

In general, the use of mobile phones during working hours is not permitted and may result in termination of your assignment. Check with your supervisor at the client before using your mobile phone.

USE OF MOBILE PHONES IN CLIENT'S VEHICLES

Check with your supervisor at the client before using hands free mobile phones.

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

You must not attend work under the influence of alcohol and / or drugs. Pin Point Recruitment and its clients reserve the right to conduct alcohol and/or drug testing of workers, where appropriate, and to deny workers access to, or remove them from, any premises if such tests are positive. If you test positive, you will have your assignment terminated.

We will not transfer your Personal Data outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Holding your Personal Data

Your Personal Data will be retained for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for Personal Data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

Your Rights

You have the following rights concerning your Personal Data:

Subject Access Request

You have the right to request access to your data at any time. If you request access to your personal data, this will be provided to you within one month.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive, or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances

Rights to object to processing

Where we are relying on a legitimate interest and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms you have the right to do so.

Right to Rectification

You have the right to request the rectification of any data you believe we hold for you which is incorrect. Following receipt of such request, we will immediately rectify any errors found.

Right to Erasure

You can request that we remove your personal data at any time. Following receipt of an erasure request, we will remove your data with a 24-hour period.

Right to request restriction of processing

This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:

- (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy;*
- (b) where our use of the data is unlawful, but you do not want us to erase it;*
- (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or*
- (d) you have objected to our use of your data, but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it*

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us on 0191 26105205.
